Dedication

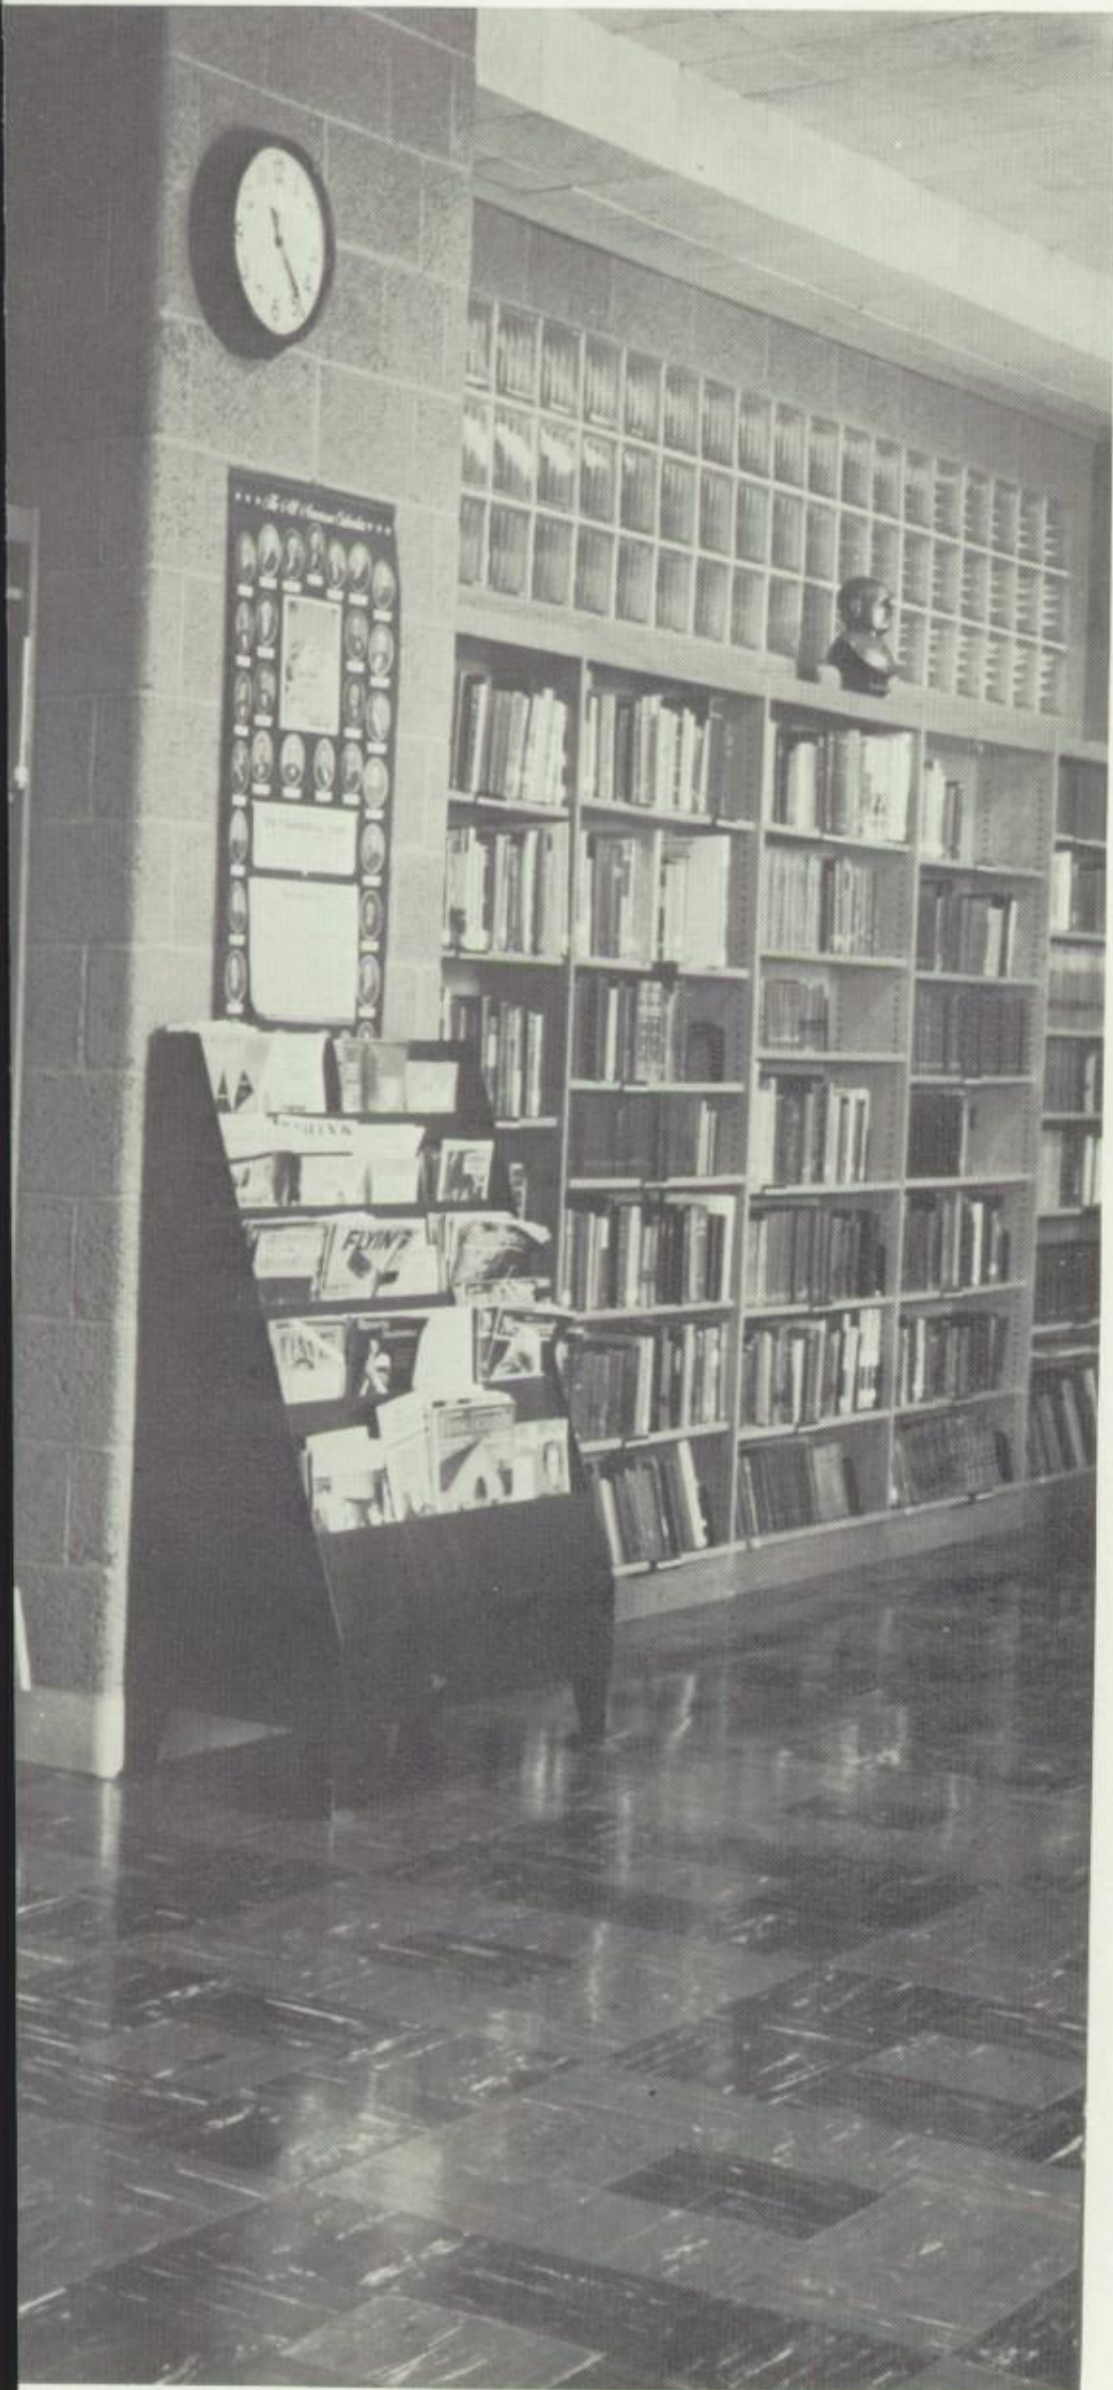

We, the Senior class of 1964, humbly dedicate this publication of the Crest to His Holiness Pope Paul VI. By accepting the burdens of his high office with humble dignity, he casts a shadow of the Good Shepherd upon Twentieth Century Christendom.

May his rule be fruitful and culminate in the Christian unity for which he so fervently strives. May his strength go forth to all men, giving them courage to walk in the path of holiness. We pray, therefore, that God may bless his endeavors.

HIS HOLINESS
POPE PAUL VI

Profile In Courage

"The courage of life is often a less dramatic spectacle than the courage of a final moment, but it is no less a magnificent mixture of triumph and tragedy. A man does what he must-in spite of personal consequences, in spite of obstacles and dangers and pressures-and that is the basis of all human morality."

John F. Kennedy

Our 1964 yearbook is published in memory of the 35th President of the United States.

THOMAS WEINANDY

MARILYN ELWER

Senior Vocations

We, the Senior Class, are proud of our classmates who are dedicating their lives to the service of the Lord. They have made their decision to follow the Lord and have taken the first step in their life's work.

Thomas Weinandy acquired his secondary education at St. Fidelis Seminary, Herman, Pennsylvania. Thomas is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Weinandy.

Marilyn Elwer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Elwer, finished her secondary education at St. Francis, Tiffin, Ohio. Marilyn is presently in the Tiffin Franciscan Novitiate.

Diane Gerdeman obtained her high school diploma at Notre Dame Academy, Toledo, Ohio. Diane, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gerdeman, is now in the Notre Dame Novitiate.

Nancy Will, daughter of Mrs. Mary Will, is a novice at Notre Dame. She completed her secondary schooling at Notre Dame Academy, Toledo, Ohio.

ACTIVITIES

Language

Freshman English students, Marjorie Kimmet, Susan Nagel, Cynthia Nartker, Dennis Alspaugh, and Jack Wulforth are discovering reference aids in the Library.

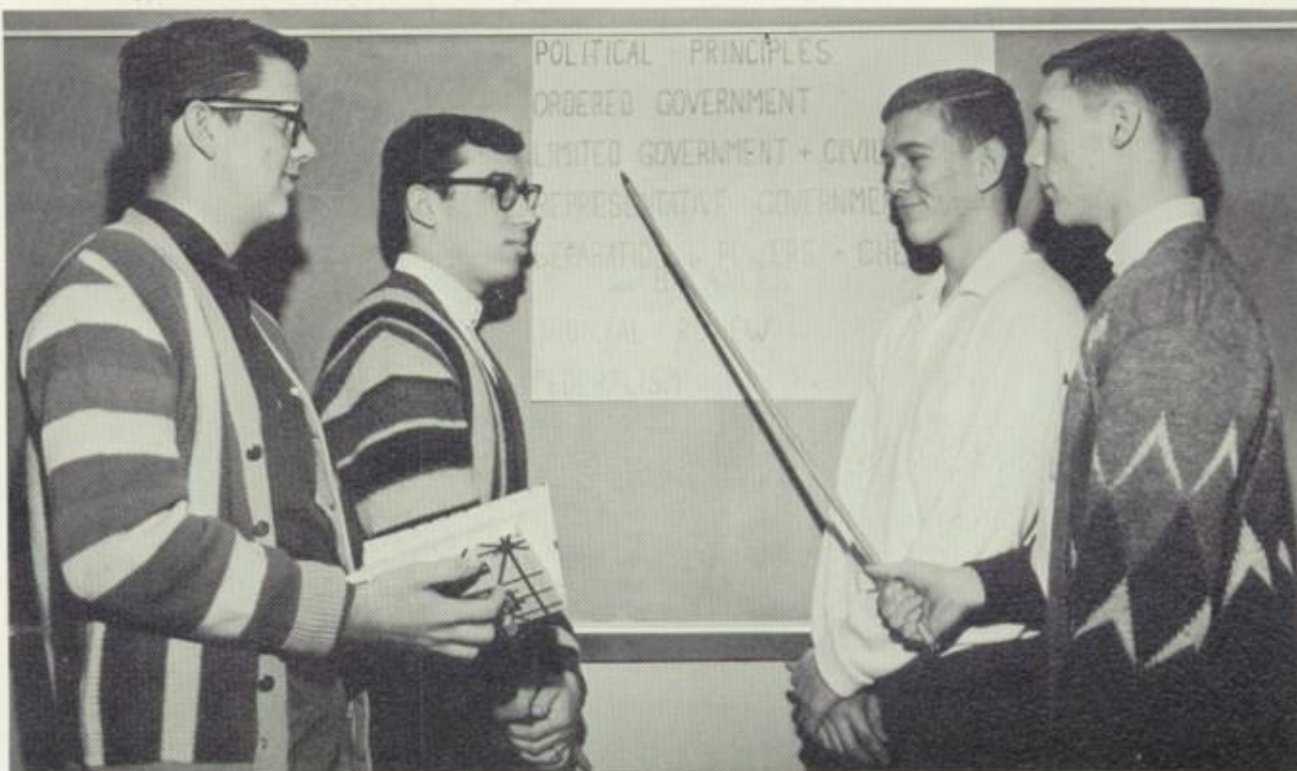

Sentence diagraming is helpful in any language, as Spanish II students, Lorenzo Topp, Elena Fischer, Guillermo Reinemeyer, Diego Ernst, and Catinita Hedrick demonstrate.

Social Science

American Government student, Gerald Carder, proves his scholastic ability by explaining the term, limited government, to Robert Brenneman, Philip Odenweller, and David Grothouse.

What's this, another "Big Ten" Ancient History duel between John Hemfling, John Raabe, Dennis Schwinnen of the Roman Raiders and Danny Kimmet, Robert Weinandy, and John Dickman of the Wolverines.

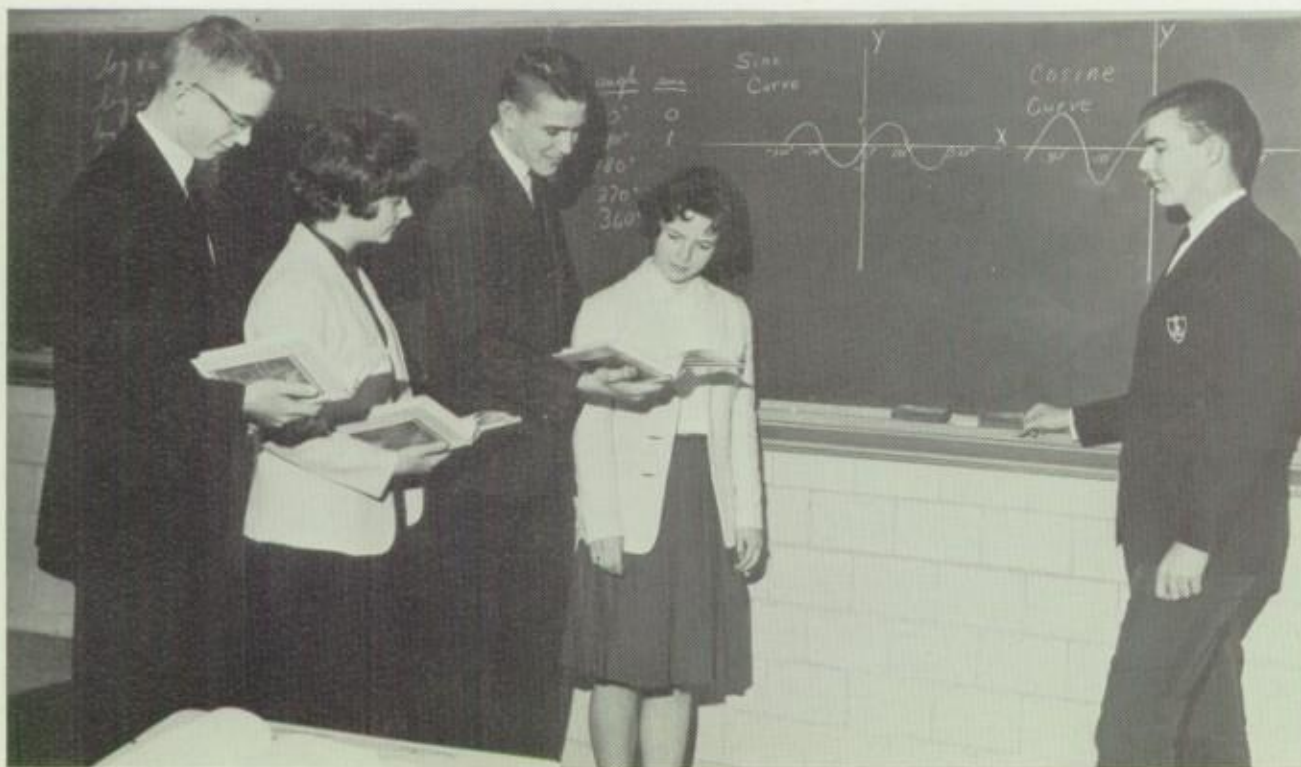

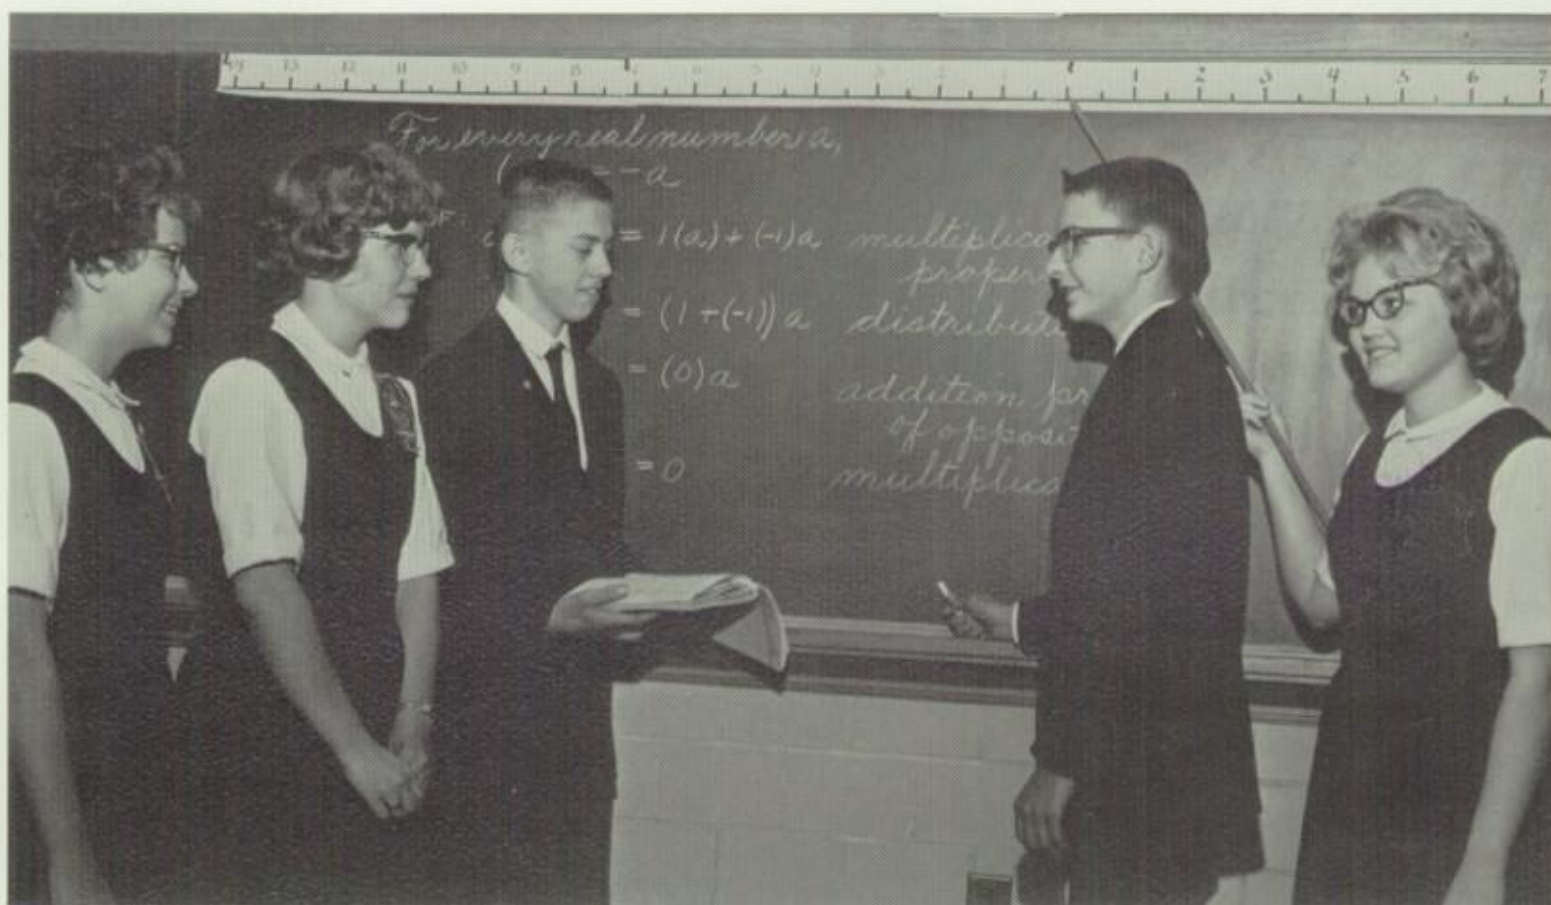

The Civil War is the topic of discussion as Mary Weisgerber explains the great conflict to Kathleen Hollar, Barbara Bonifas, Daniel Beckman, Susanne Kesler, and Richard Hageman.

Mathematics

Karen Hayes seems fascinated with the study of geometric design. Other interested students are: Patricia Youngpeter, Keith Hall, Thomas Reis, and Gerald Hesselning.

Are you sure that is a real number? This is the question at hand as Jeanne Helmkamp and Michael Pohlman explain the real number system to Bonnie Ellerbrock, Kay Kaverman, and Kenneth Hoersten.

"Notice the similarity between the sine curve and cosine curve," explains Donald Pohlman, as Math IV students Edward Pohlman, Ann Wulfhorst, Dale Jostpille, and Pamela Clark grasp the problem.

Science

Biology students, Susan Gengler, Sharon Pohlman, Shirley Leffers, Kay Westrich, and Jane Cramer discuss the basic structures of animal life.

The Jekyll-Hyde formula has been re-discovered by Junior chemists, Carl Sever, Bernard Will, Linda Klausling, Diane Warnecke, Melvin Gable, and Jane Elwer.

During an experiment in College-Prep Physics, Annette Van Oss, Jacquelyn Geddings, Mary Ann Will, James Menke and Tomas Kundert check the efficiency of two of the simple machines.

Business Classes

Joyce Kramer, Mary Weisgerber, Sharon Nomina, and Jean Miller display the importance of accuracy in Shorthand, while Irene Pohlman, Ruth Ann Mueller, and Jane Hoersten take dictation.

Future secretaries, Sharon Smith, Rose Hielt, Dian Nomina, Susan Osting, and Mary Klausing find Business Practice interesting and important for their careers.

Typing I students have discovered that only practice, practice, practice can bring perfection in speed.

SJH Delegations

The 10th Annual Ohio Association of Student Councils, held from July 21 to July 26 at Ohio University, Athens, has brought a better understanding of the workings of the Association to Robert Wegesin, and Marilyn Scherger, Council President and Vice-President respectively.

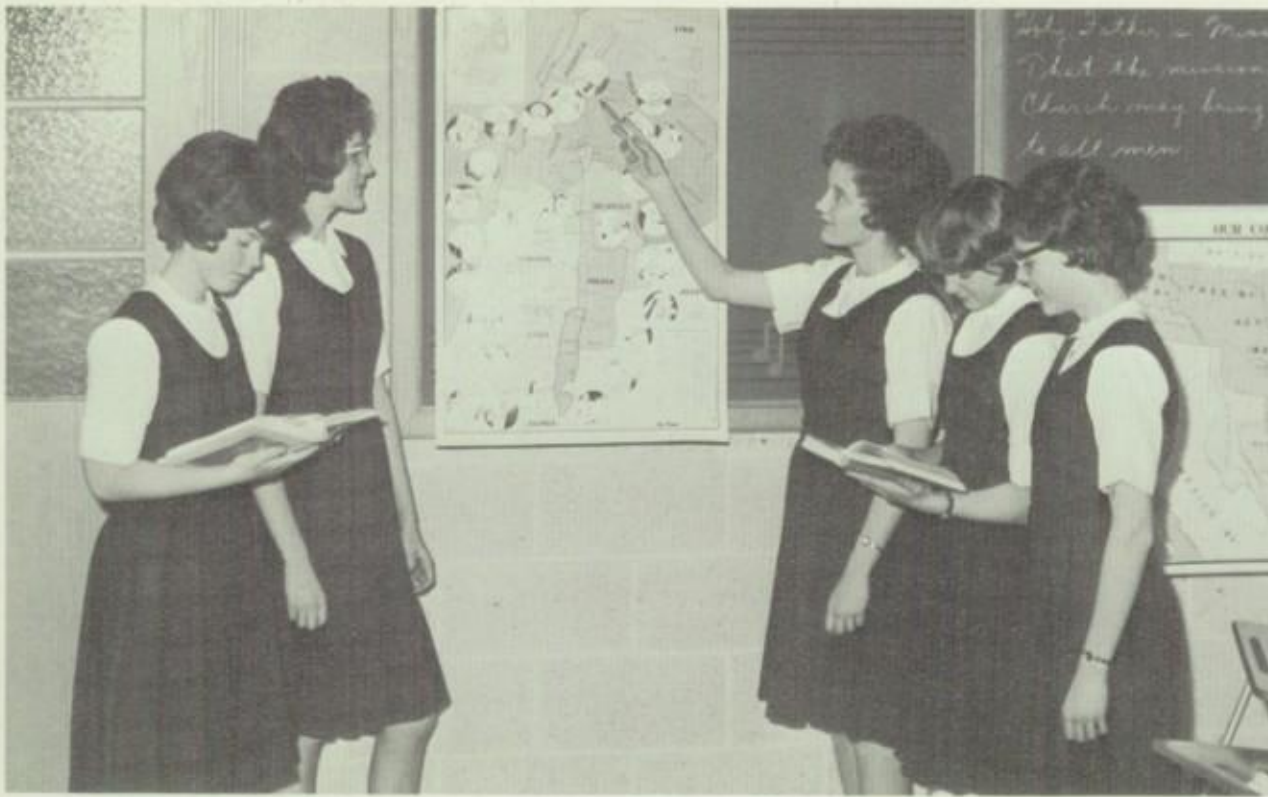

Dale Jostpille, Boys' State Delegate, and Annette Van Oss and Nancy Mack, Girls' State Delegates, realize the important role citizens play in maintaining good government.

Alternates to Girls' State, Diana Grubenhoff and Susan Brandehoff, and Alternate Boys' State Representative, Larry Topp, deserve recognition for being chosen for their honorary positions.

Religion

A pilgrimage would be inspiring but Freshman Religion students, Elizabeth Heitz, Susan Hoehn, Martha Scherger, Kristen Birkemeyer, and Diane Moenter are satisfied to follow the journeys of Christ by map.

Religion III student, Gregory Miller explains the homeland of Christ to Kenneth Youngpeter, William Voigt, and Dennis Hageman.

Discussion leader Candace Patton enjoys leading Kathryn Bendele, Nancy Stant, Sharon Baumgarte, Sue Ann Korb, and Jane Wrasman in a Sociology debate.

FATHER KARL

ACOLYTES

The Senior Acolytes deserve recognition for their many years of faithful service. They are: ROW ONE: Donald Patthoff, David Brickner. ROW TWO: Stephen Seffernick, William Reinemeyer. ROW THREE: Larry Topp, Thomas Kundert.

Behind Crest Scenes

Our new Crest Advisor, Mr. William Balas, glances over the copy before it is sent to press.

Choral Club

Directing the well-trained choral group poses no problem for Student Director, Robert Wegesin. Under the musical instruction of Sister Mary St. Catherine, the Choir presented two fine concerts.

Much of the success of the Christmas and Spring Concerts is attributed to the Choir's smiling accompanists, Loyola Pothast and Joseph Schmelzer.

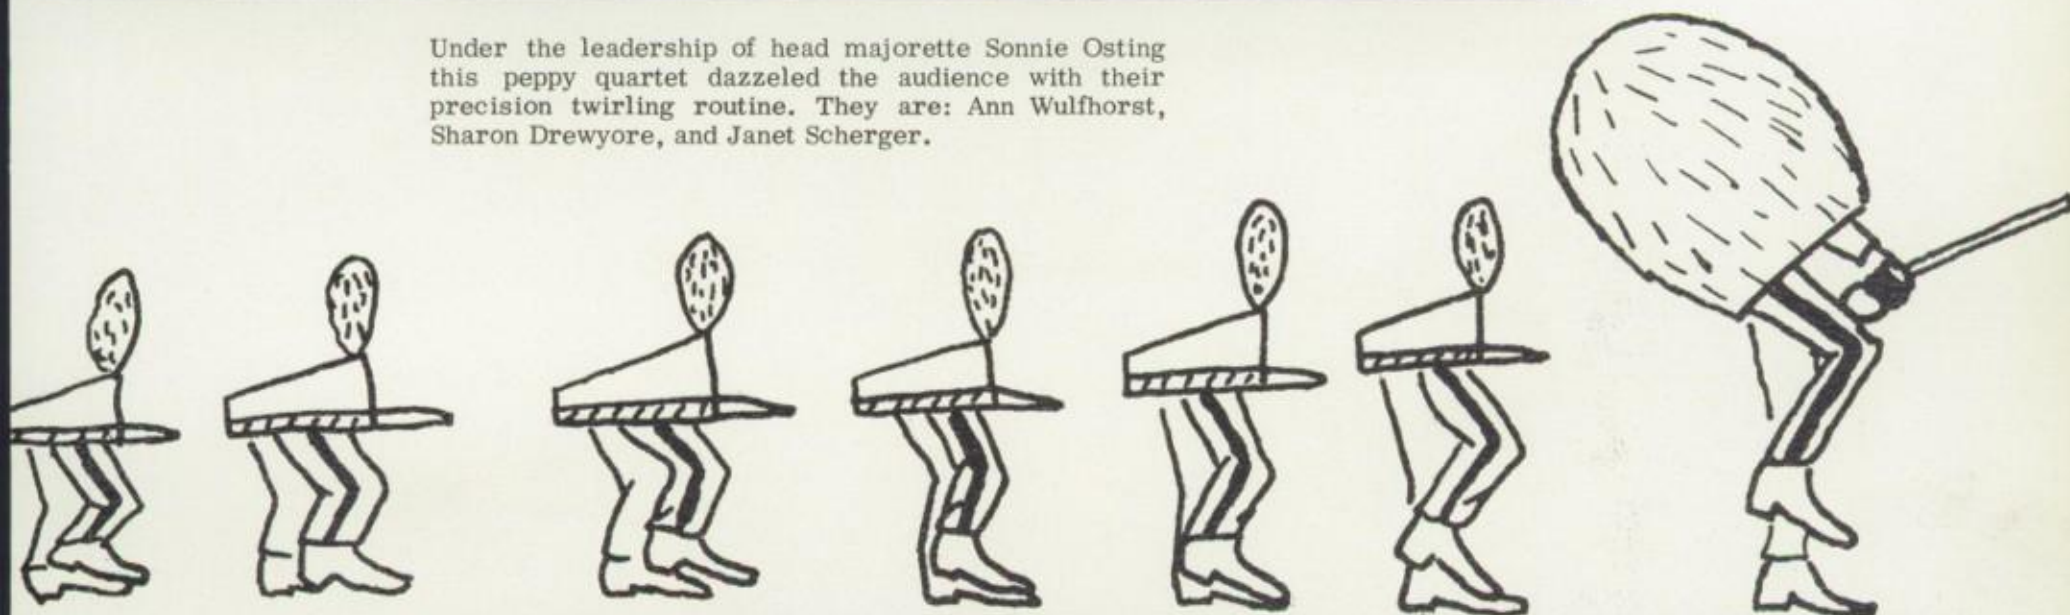

In the few years that Mr. Don Bowersox has served at SJH he has truly done much more than wave his baton. He has conducted the band in a "Slave Day" and other fund raising projects; he has prepared the band for countless parades, marching contests, and street-corner serenades to raise money. Thanks to him these new Band uniforms have become a reality!

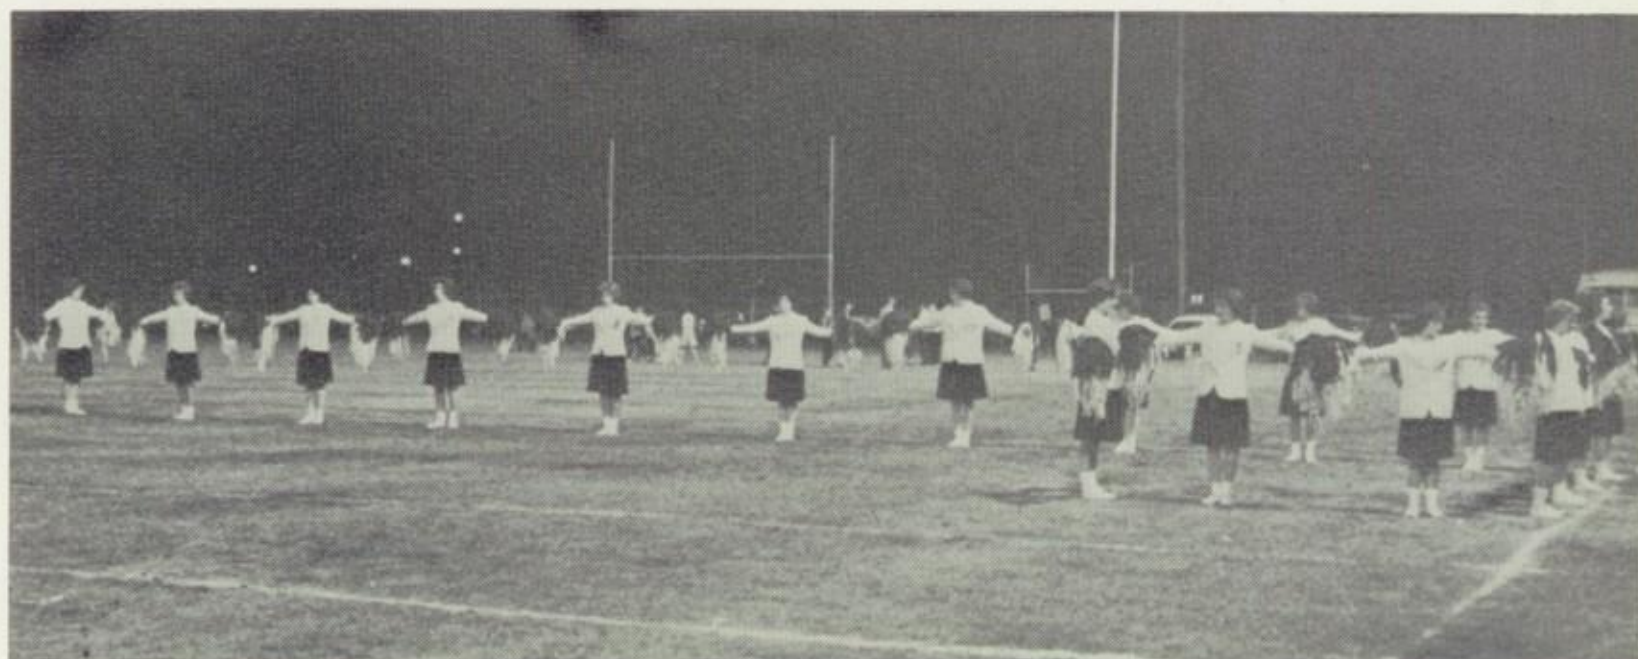

Majorettes

Under the leadership of head majorette Sonnie Osting this peppy quartet dazzled the audience with their precision twirling routine. They are: Ann Wulfhorst, Sharon Drewyore, and Janet Scherger.

The newly organized "Pompon" girls proved to be a welcome addition to the 1964 marching band. A special thanks to Mrs. Bonnie Meyers who assisted the group as choreographer for their many delightful half-time performances.

Class Speakers

ANNETTE VAN OSS

CARL HEITZ JR.

Commencement speakers for the Class of 1964 were Annette Van Oss Salutatorian, and Carl Heitz Jr. Valedictorian. Annette and Carl were chosen for this honor on the basis of their high scholastic average during the four years of high school.

In Memoriam

Sadly missed by all who knew him is Gerald Wannemacher, a member of the Class of 1964. Gerry died just before the beginning of his junior year. All who knew him considered him a fine example of Christian youth. He has become an ideal for the Class of 1964 and we pray to him often for help and guidance. We trust he will remember us, his classmates, in a special way.

SOCIAL

Queen Pam

Homecoming 1963

Rhapsody In Blue

Graceful anticipation is the phrase that best describes Pam's expression as she is escorted to her throne.

"Wish I may, wish I might," whispers Queen Pam as Michael Van Schoyk, Mission President and Robert Wegisin, Student Council President, place the crown upon her head. Lovely

February Frolic

Ann Wulforth and Mark Sever waltz gracefully while Sue Korb gyrates in the background.

'Cherry Pink and Apple Blossom White' dominates this scene from the February dance honoring our nation's heroes.

Frank Baldauf, Joseph Schmelzer, Daniel Schleeter try their hand as disc-jockeys.

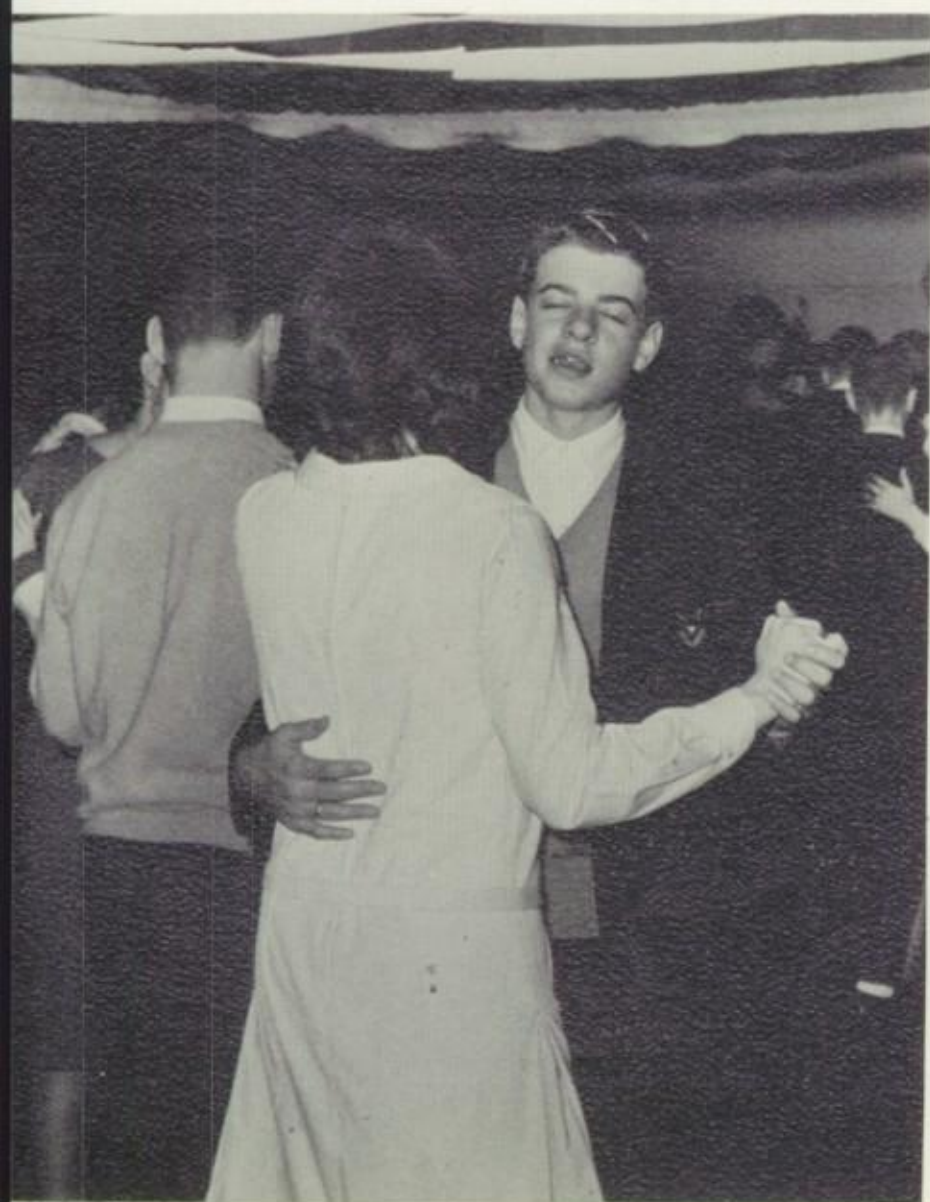

Adding a note of realism to the dance, the empty rocking chair symbolizes the emptiness in our hearts at the loss of President Kennedy.

"Where's my Partner?" says Elizabeth Heitz as she scans the dance floor for another boy.

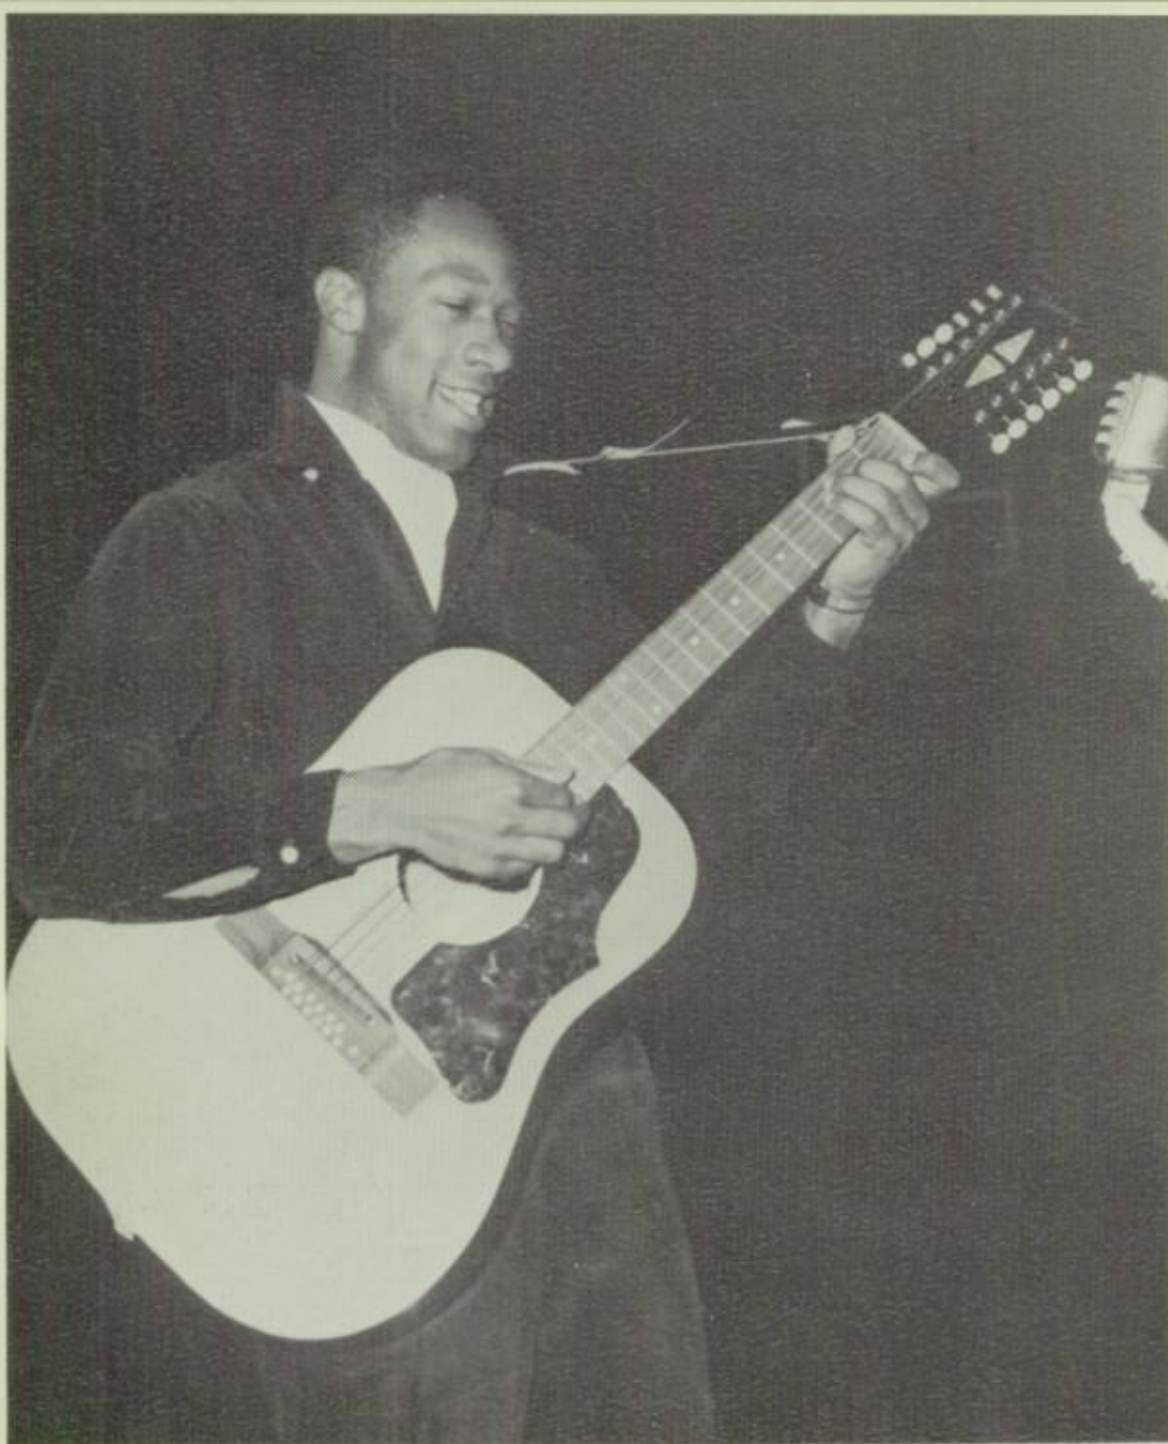

We know 'Where the Boys Are' ('As Usual') but where are the girls?

Father Kuhn (Perpetual Chaperone) wonders if it's only 'Puppy Love'.

Dave Browning

Dave Browning, senior English major and part time folk singer, presented his vocal performance to the student body November 15, 1963. Among his many selections, favorites included: Blowin' In the Wind, This Land is Your Land, Ghost Riders in the Sky, Moon River, and Scarlet Ribbons.

Student Reaction

Donald Patthoff: "He really knows how to hold an audience."
 John Rupert: "I think he is a very fine singer."
 Candace Patton: "He should be on records."
 Roger Kimmet: "Terrific performance."
 James Menke: "It really made me feel neat listening to him."
 Pam Neumier: "He was neat."
 Deborah Klausing: "I thought he was real good. I wish he'd come back."
 Karen Hayes: "Neatest singer alive."
 Cynthia Swick: "I thought he was good, if I had the opportunity I'd see him again."

Harbor Lights

James Menke, Pam Clark, Susan Nomina, and Michael Van Schoyck pose in the net-draped entrance to the '63 Spring Formal.

Susan Brandehoff, Mary Ann Kundert, Dennis Mann, and Allen Lause add to the already picturesque scene from "Harbor Lights."

Hostess Jacquelyn Geddings and Host Fred Kollsmith pause near the miniature grotto of Our Lady.

Mr. and Miss Crest Of 1964

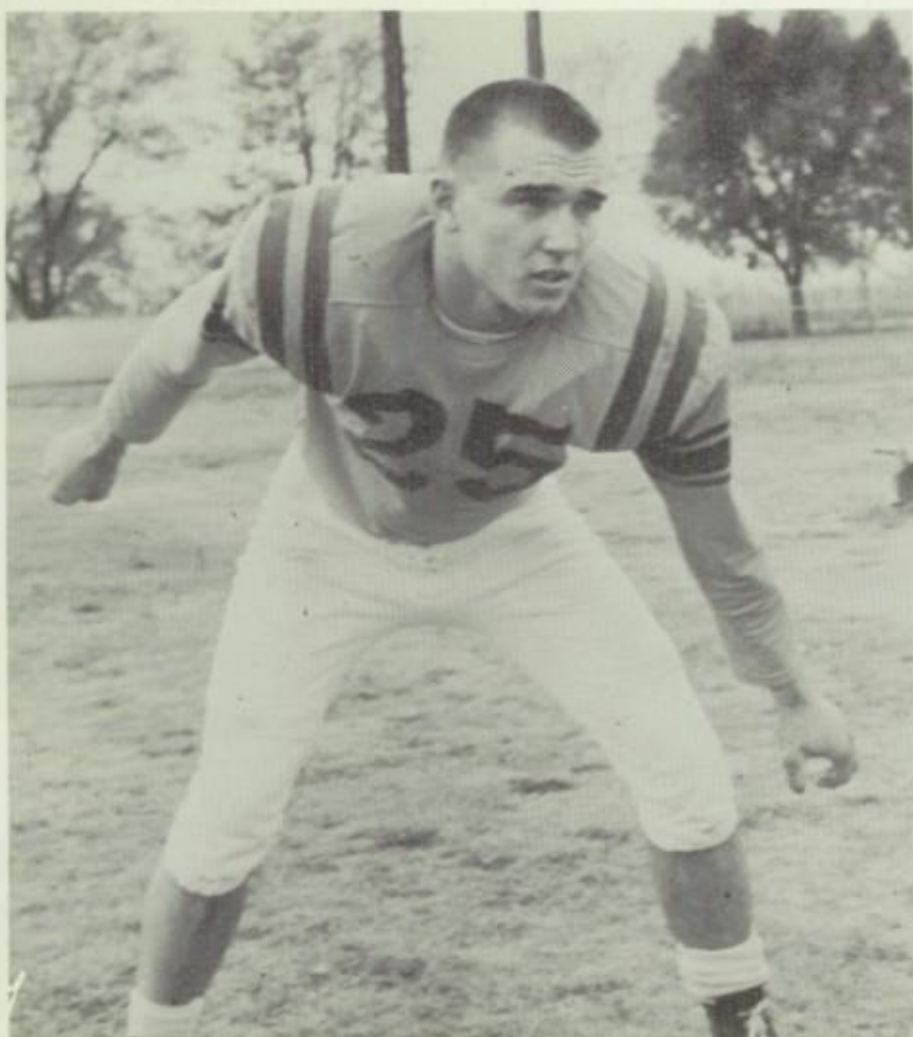

Carl Heitz and Marilyn Scherger, because of their outstanding salesmanship in the 1964 Crest campaign, merited the honors of reigning as Mr. and Miss Crest. They presided over the activities at the annual Crest Dance, and are shown here presenting copies of the 1964 Crest to runners-up Mary Ann Will and Thomas Kundert. Other members of the court are: Ann Wulforth, Jane Wrasman, James Menke, and Dennis Mann.

Through the halls of old St. John's
Where we long to be
Where we spend our lives together;
Pledge our loyalty.
Hail to St. John's! Hail to St. John's!
We love thy name so true
Ever faithful to our emblem
Of the gold and blue!
